How Do We Prevent the Second HIV Epidemic?

The Third Annual World AIDS Day Symposium

December 1, 1999
How Do We Prevent the Second HIV Epidemic?

Third Annual World AIDS Day Symposium

Presented by the UCSF AIDS Research Institute

Wednesday, December 1, 1999
2-5 PM
Reception with Speakers 5-6 PM

Location
University of California
Cole Hall
513 Parnassus Avenue
San Francisco, CA

Registration
Space is limited for this free symposium
To register, please call: 415/597-UCSF
or email: ari@psg.ucsf.edu

Program and Speakers

Special Keynote Speaker: Congresswoman Nancy Pelosi

Accomplishments and Challenges in the Next Millennium
• Thomas J. Coates, PhD, Director, UCSF AIDS Research Institute

The Spread of Drug-Resistant HIV-1
• Robert Grant, MD, MPH, Gladstone Institute of Virology and Immunology, San Francisco General Hospital

Post-Exposure Prevention and Primary HIV Infection
• Michelle Roland, MD, Positive Health Program, San Francisco General Hospital

Detection of Recent HIV Infection: New Public Health Opportunities In Prevention
• Willi McFarland, MD, PhD, SF Department of Public Health
• Kim Page-Shafer, PhD, MPH, Center for AIDS Prevention Studies

Retargeting HIV Prevention: New Efforts for Infected and Uninfected Persons
• Cynthia Gómez, MEd, PhD, Center for AIDS Prevention Studies

Making Prevention Work for HIV+ Individuals: The Intersection of Policy and Prevention
• Michael Shriver, AIDS Policy Research Center

Join us for a stimulating look at the future of HIV prevention and a reception with speakers following the symposium.